ESOL Program

Summer 2021

Community College of Baltimore County

FAMILY LITERACY ENGLISH FOR SPEAKERS OF OTHER LANGUAGES (ESOL)

The Family Literacy ESOL Program for non-native English speaking parents is designed to help parents learn English language skills for life, work, and to help with their child's education. The student must have a child 0–16 years old living in the home and enrolled in a Baltimore County Public School, the Judy Center of Baltimore County or Baltimore County Head Start.

*No Class Cost – Grant Funded. Student book and workbook are not included.

Students must have unlimited internet access, a computer or tablet with camera and microphone or smart phone.

Online ZOOM classes

And you need to attend one testing session on a CCBC campus the last day of class.
