

Thank you so much for your submission to the National PTA Reflections contest!
This annual contest celebrates the arts in education and to encourage creativity!
We hope to see more of your work next year!

Below you will find some of the positive things the judges said about your work!

